BASEBALL ALBERTA SCHOLARSHIPS

The Baseball Alberta Doris Taylor Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship was created in recognition of Doris Taylor's voluntary contribution to the Alberta youth during her years of service with Baseball Alberta. It is presented annually for post secondary studies to an athlete/umpire who has demonstrated outstanding academic performance, community service and shown athletic ability as a player with Baseball Alberta.

The Dave Reiniger Memorial Scholarship was created in recognition of Mr. Reingier's unequalled contribution to Alberta youth during his years of service with the Tiger Baseball Association and Baseball Alberta. The scholarship is applicable towards the extra costs of attending post secondary institutions and is payable in two installments.

The Bob White Memorial Scholarship is designed to encourage players, registered with Baseball Alberta, to pursue college or university studies with ultimate objectives of obtaining a degree.

The Gordie Wilson Memorial Scholarship is to encourage and assist athletes, currently registered with Baseball Alberta, to improve their skill levels through attendance at a baseball instructional camp. It is applicable towards the costs involved in attending an approved baseball camp offering high quality, well supervised technical programs. The award is for three hundred ($300.00) dollars annually, payable in two equal installments: the first after the announcement, and the second after attendance at the camp has been verified. Payment will be made by cheque drawn from the fund through the Alberta Sport Council. Anyone who is currently registered as player with Baseball Alberta and is between the ages of fourteen to sixteen by December 31st of the current calendar year can apply.

APPLICATION: For more information on Baseball Alberta scholarships and awards, as well as those that are available through Baseball Alberta's partners, you can refer to Baseball Alberta's handbook, www.baseballalberta.com, or contact the provincial office.
